CREIGHTON WINS FAST GAME, 27-7

Inflicts Second Defeat on St. Thomas Suffered by That School in Six Years.

IMPROVEMENT BY LOCAL TEAM

In the best game of foot ball seen on Creighton field in many a day, Coach Mills' gridiron machine yesterday humbled St. Thomas college by the score of 27 to 7. The victory is the second any team has gained over St. Thomas in six years. The other defeat was at the hands of MacAlester college last year, 29 to 6, and St. Thomas wiped that out by coming back at MacAlester, 49 to 5, this season.

The battle was hard-fought and spectacular to the finish. Creighton showed immense improvement over its early season play, while St. Thomas also produced something that sent repeated thrills into the crowd.

To Paul Kamanski, the lengthy Creighton center, belongs the honor of scoring the first touchdown. Creighton had kicked off and recovered the ball on a fumble during the first scrimmage. A forward pass to Niroso sent the leather over the goal line, but it was here knocked out of the little quarter's hands and a general scramble for its possession resulted. Kamanski recovered the pilskin about six inches from the line, with Niroso and Captain Shannon sprawling on top of him. Niroso hissed "Shove her over," which "SI" lost no time in doing.

Takes Goal on Fumble.
Creighton again kicked off and on another fumble by St. Thomas Lutes recovered with a clear field before him, but lost the pilskin, another Creighton man falling on it. Then commenced a display of terrific foot ball by both teams. Line smashes, end runs, hard and desperate tackles, and forward passes followed each other rapidly. Flanagan finally tore through the entire opposition on a trick play for forty yards, following which a neat pass from Niroso to Hale scored Creighton's next tally. Platz kicked goal. Score: Creighton, 13; St. Thomas, 6.

The second quarter was scoreless. Farrell, Sullivan and Ward negotiated a number of nice gains for the visitors, but as a rule the Creighton defense was invincible. Lutes, Flanagan, Shannon, Stapleton, and Wise time and again smashed to pieces the attack of the visiting backs, and on only few occasions was first down made. In this period a clever trick for ward pass, Platz to Brennan, netted Creighton about thirty yards, and was followed immediately by another peg by the same parties for ten more. Platz then tried a field goal, but was standing too near his own line, and the kick fell short.

When Saints Score.
The Saints made their only points in the third period, but the score was earned. St. Thomas kicked off. Creighton made no gains and Wise punted. A forward pass, Farrell to Ward, advanced the leather, and a penalty to Creighton for holding added fifteen yards. Sullivan broke away for twelve yards more, and the following play, Farrell to Conroy, brought the ball across the chalk from the thirty-yard line. Several Creighton men tried to block the play, but without avail.

The remainder of this quarter was spectacular. Conway, St. Thomas' wizard left end, snapped up the ball when Niroso dropped it after receiving a forward pass from Platz and raced thirty yards before being downed. A few seconds later Creighton repeated a performance for Creighton, tearing down the field sixty yards on an intercepted pass. He was brought to a halt on the twenty-yard line, but his run gave Creighton its third touchdown. A risky forward pass, which one of the visitors stabbed at and

Notre Dame Comes To Omaha for Fray With Mills' Squad

November 13 will be the big foot ball day in Omaha. This is the day that Notre Dame, the wizard team from South Bend, Ind., comes to Omaha for a battle with Coach Mills' Creighton huskies. Interest in this struggle is at a high pitch, and many are the predictions as to the showing Creighton will make against Harper's wonders.

Creighton started the season in poor shape, the varsity men reporting only a few days before the Wesleyan game, which was lost as a consequence. Since that time, however, the players have buckled down to action, and a tremendous improvement was the immediate result.

This week the program for the hill-top athletes will consist of the hardest kind of work. Scrimmage with the University of Omaha, Central High, and the scrubs, will be a daily occurrence, and Mills is figuring on having the squad assembled for night work, also.

Perhaps the greatest bit of encouragement for Creighton is the return of Russell Burford, the blue and white's remarkable center, who sustained a fractured skull in the game against Wesleyan and gave up foot ball following his injury. His rather rapid recovery, however, has served to again arouse the gridiron fever in the big center, and it is almost certain that he will rejoin the squad this week, to participate in the Notre Dame fight Saturday.

Basket Ball Teams Line Up for Season

That interest in basket ball will surpass that of last season is already evidenced by local basket ball circles. A number of teams already have lined up their players and before the week is up expect to start practice. The Townsends, last season's winners of the Tri-City league, will travel under the leadership of the Brandeis' this season. Jack Johnson will manage the quintet, and is at work on a schedule. The Brandeis' team is expected to number of college teams here in the winter. Carl Weigle, manager of the Pirates last season, will pilot the Townsends. The same man who played last year will comprise the squad.

A business meeting will be arranged in a short while to make definite arrangements for the formation of leagues. Because of the success of basket ball last year, it is certain that three and possibly four leagues will be formed.

CAPTAIN OF NOTRE DAME, WHO PLAY CREIGHTON SATURDAY

Fremont Fitzgerald

Fremont Fitzgerald is the veteran of the Notre Dame squad. Fitz plays at guard and is recognized as one of the best in the west. This is Fitzgerald's fourth year on the team. In 1912, Fitzgerald's first year in school, he made a guard position on the South Bend eleven. The following year he was shifted to center and this year he was shifted back to guard again.

HUSKERS TAKE EASY ONE FROM WESLEYAN

Assistant Coach Joe Hoefel Pilots Nebraska to Thirty-to-Nothing Victory.

MANY SUBS IN THE LINEUP

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—With Assistant Coach Joe Hoefel in charge, while "Jumbo" Stehman and Captain Dick Rutherford lapped the Jayhawkers in action, the Huskers had a pleasant little romp with the Wesleyan eleven this afternoon, winning 30 to 0.

Hoefel swung twelve substitutes into the fray before the final curtain and kept Halfbacks Gardner and Reese on the side lines all afternoon, but in spite of it Nebraska rang up two touchdowns in the first quarter and two in the final quarter, while Wesleyan held them scoreless during the second and third periods. The Methodists were never able to come within striking distance of the Nebraska goal.

No Tricks Uncovered.
The Huskers had no tricks to uncover and plugged the Wesleyan line for gains whenever they felt like it and when distinguished to tug the ball they kicked. Wesleyan fought hard, but minus the services of their star, Captain Johnson, were no match for even the varsity substitutes. Chamberlain, Cook and Crocker were nearly always good for gains and Chamberlain got away with several long sprits.

It was exactly three minutes after the start of the game that Nebraska scored the first touchdown. The Huskers kicked off and Wesleyan fumbled on the third down, Nebraska recovering. Otouplik broke through for seventeen yards and Chamberlain dashed off nine around and scored. Otouplik carried it over and Corey kicked goal.

Wesleyan Punts.
Wesleyan could not gain after the kickoff and punted to Cook, who returned thirteen yards to the Wesleyan forty-two yard line. Nebraska carried the ball to the Wesleyan forty-yard line, but lost it on downs. A second later Corey kicked it.

Army Loses to Notre Dame in Hard Game

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The Army loses to Notre Dame today, 7 to 0, in a well played and hard fought game. The Army showed a weak offense and none of the cadet backs could gain consistently through the Notre Dame line, except Olyphant, who played his usual star game. The Army forwards were outplayed most of the time and its wings were woefully weak. Three times Notre Dame essayed to kick field goals but failed.

OREGON AGGIES DEFEAT UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 6.—In a game of strategy foot ball with no spectacular play on either side, Oregon Agricultural college, which last Saturday defeated the Michigan Aggies, completely outplayed the University of Idaho here today, 40 to 0.

Abraham, Lacey, Newman and Allen of the Oregonians, made yardage at will on line smashes, which only three times during the entire game was Idaho able to win its first down. Idaho was penalized a number of times and was unlucky with costly fumbles.

A hard shower of rain in the third period made the gridiron slippery and slowed down the game.

DAVID CITY FOOT BALL SQUAD WANTS TROUBLE

David City is looking for Nebraska foot ball teams who are willing to tackle its pet team on the gridiron. The David City lads look like about the class of the state. They defeated Hawkeok 21 to 6, and it is said that David City did not even use all its first string men to turn the trick. Any team which would like to battle the Butler county lads can get a game for the asking.

CORNELL CRUSHES WESLEYAN CLAN

Hurry-Up Yost's Warriors Overwhelmed by Visitors by 34 to 7 Score.

WESTERNERS SCORE IN THIRD

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6.—Barrett's great open field running and ability to crash through Michigan's line at opportune moments was an important factor in the 34 to 7 victory which the foot ball eleven of Cornell scored over Michigan here today.

The first touchdown required only three plays to complete, after Barrett tossed a forward pass to Eckley early in the first quarter. Barrett carried the ball over on a bludge through Watson, and then kicked goal. Maubretsch started for Michigan and scored the only touchdown for Yost's men on a fumble in the third quarter. Cochran made the goal.

A poor punt by Benton gave Cornell the ball on Michigan's forty-five-yard line early in the first period. The easterners' strong offense and a forward pass put the ball on Michigan's forty-yard line. Barrett made the touchdown and goal. Michigan was unable to make much headway and Cornell made another touchdown and goal. Score: Cornell, 34; Michigan, 7.

Cornell's third touchdown was made toward the close of the second period. Early in the period the easterners had the ball on Michigan's twenty-six-yard line, but met a fifteen-yard penalty. An exchange of kicks gave Barrett an opportunity to carry the ball to Michigan's thirty-three-yard line. Finally Barrett turned right tackle for the touchdown and kicked goal. Score: Cornell, 21; Michigan, 0.

Late in the third period Cornell fumbled on its own thirty-yard line and Reiman of Michigan fell on the ball. Michigan began a powerful offense in which Maubretsch was the chief ground gainer. The ball was worked slowly to the one-yard line and Reiman went over. Cochran goal.

Score and third period: Cornell, 21; Michigan, 7.
Cornell scored twice in the last period. Collins paved the way for the first of the score by returning a punt thirty yards, which placed the ball on Michigan's fifteen-yard line. Barrett made the final plunge and kicked goal. The second touchdown came when Michigan, after failing three successive times to execute forward passes, attempted a fourth. Collins intercepted the pass on his own forty-yard line. He started down the field and carried the ball over Michigan's line. Barrett missed goal. Final score: Cornell, 34; Michigan, 7.

Omaha Will Be One of Three Cities in New Billiard League

A billiard league embracing Omaha, Sioux City and Des Moines has been completed and a schedule will shortly be drawn up and play inaugurated.

Three men from each of the cities will play in the league. Al Cain, state champion, and Harry Symes will probably be two of the Omaha team, with a third man to be chosen.

The game to be played will be 18 1/2 ball line, with all matches 90 points.

After the first year it is planned to enlarge the league, taking in Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Lincoln and perhaps one other city.

A cup valued at $50 will be put up by a billiard company and a Sioux City jewelry company has offered a trophy.

Plan for Y. M. C. A. Cross-Country Run

Plans are already being made for the annual Thanksgiving cross-country run at the Young Men's Christian association. It is expected that fully fifty crack distance runners will enter the event this year. Entry blanks are being sent out to a number of nearby schools and colleges. A cup and medal are prizes in this event.

JOE CLAIRE WINS ALL-AGE STAKE AT ODELL MEET

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Odell clubing meet closed Friday after a run of three days. Joe Claire, owned by Ragan & Woodworth of Utica, won the all-age stake, with Lady Lane, owned by Kasperik, Taylor & Shank of Odell, runner up.

The special stake was won by Calverton, owned by Andrews & Pease of Beatrice, with Lass Pilkinson, owned by Edward Wright of Red Cloud, runner up.

The consolation stake was won by Sleepy Kate, owned by Edward Wright of Red Cloud, with Lucile Allen, owned by Thiesens, Holmes & Payne of Wyoming, runner up.

Ohio State Defeats Indiana by a Point

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—Ohio State defeated Indiana by one point here today in a foot ball game full of thrills. The final score was 10 to 9. Indiana's weight, silent signals and frequent change of players could not wear down the Ohioans.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 7, 1915.

IOWA VANQUISHED BY BOILERMAKERS

Old Gold Warriors Are Defeated in Game Played Mostly on Own Ground.

NINETEEN TO THIRTEEN SCORE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—Purdue won its first conference game of the season today when Iowa was defeated, 19 to 13. Pultz, with two field goals was the star on offense for Purdue, while Captain Blocker's defensive play was invaluable. Allen, a substitute, went in at halfback in the third quarter and did spectacular work. Iowa's back field smashed the Purdue line repeatedly. Pultz's toe gave the Boiler-makers their only advantage. He kicked his first goal from the thirty-three yard line in the first period and the second from the forty-three yard line in the second quarter.

Score by Air Route.
Purdue scored by the air route a few minutes after the opening of the game. Pultz drop kicked from the thirty-five yard line. Iowa braced and came back marching for a goal. Kwitich crossed over and Davis kicked goal. The quarter ended with the ball in Purdue's possession on Iowa's five-yard line.

Purdue braced in the second quarter and scored ten points to the opponents six, tying the score. Iowa carried the ball into striking distance during the last few minutes of play during the quarter, but Purdue held. The quarter ended with the ball in Purdue's possession on their own forty-four yard line.

Neither side was able to score in the third period. Twice Purdue worked the ball to the Iowa two-yard line where the visitors held them for downs.
Shortly after the final period started, Pultz went over for Purdue's final touchdown, but the attempt to kick goal failed. For the rest of the period, the play was mostly in Iowa's territory. The final score was: Purdue, 19; Iowa, 13.

Michigan Aggies Run Over Marquette Men

EAST LANSING, Mich., Nov. 6.—The Michigan Aggies found Marquette University eleven of Milwaukee too light to furnish spirited opposition today and the powerful Lansing team won, 38 to 6. The first period ended, 21 to 0. Marquette recovered during the second and held the farmers to two touchdowns. M. A. C.'s fumbles also checked their rush.

The last half was much the same. Marquette, however, crossed the Aggies line in the third period, but missed to kick the goal.

Mighty Oklahomans Take Another Game

TULSA, Okl., Nov. 6.—The University of Oklahoma foot ball team, undefeated champion of the 1915 championship in the southwest, kept its record clear by a single point over Henry Kendall college here today. The score was 14 to 13 and the university eleven was behind until the third quarter. Kendall showed marked ability at breaking up the long passes which defeated Missouri, Kansas and Texas and scored its two touchdowns on forward passes and end runs. Oklahoma crossed Kendall's goal line twice on a forward pass and line plunges. Captain Geyer kicking both goals.

Basket Ball Men to Meet at Y. M. C. A.

A meeting of all managers of basket ball teams in the various Young Men's Christian association leagues will be held Tuesday evening at the "Y" at 8 o'clock. Anybody interested in basket ball is invited to attend the meeting.

All three leagues, the Tri-City, Commercial and Church, will be reorganized for the 1916 season.

QUAKERS ARE DEFEATED BY DARTMOUTH ELEVEN

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—The University of Pennsylvania was defeated by Dartmouth today, 7 to 3, but only after the Red and White team, which had been reorganized within the week, had made a stubborn fight for winners' honors. Dartmouth's offense was erratic, flashing brilliantly through its opponent's line at times, but being stopped at other times by alert Pennsylvania forwards. Occasionally the Green faltered and fumbled and Pennsylvania turned these shortcomings to its own account.

Westerner Makes World's Drop Kick Record

MARK PAYNE

Whoever heard of Mark Payne, and how did he break into the foot ball hall of fame? True, few people have heard of this marvelous youngster, but he did not "limpy" his way into the public prints. He earned his way by legitimate means, and if he had been a student at Harvard, Yale or Princeton his fame would have been heralded broadcast.

Mark plays foot ball at the Dakota Wesleyan university at Mitchell, S. D., and he booted a drop kick across the goal from the sixty-three yard line in a game against Northern Normal at Aberdeen, S. D., on October 16.

This sixty-three yard kick is the world's record, beating by one yard the famous kick of Pat O'Dea, which for seventeen years has stood as the high water mark in drop kicking. Pat played on the University of Wisconsin team.

Just to show that Payne's record-breaking boot was not a mere fluke, it is pointed out that last year he made a fifty-five yard drop kick on the Dakota Wesleyan field, a drop kick of fifty-three yards on the Yankton Athletic field and another of forty-five yards on the Huron college athletic field.

What would Yale, Princeton or Harvard give for this marvel in their big games this year?

SIoux METHODISTS BEATEN BY AMES

AMES, Ia., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Ames won a hard game from Morning-side, 7 to 6, on Iowa state field this afternoon. Uhl, Chicago fullback, bruised the tough Sioux City line for the score in the second quarter. Moss kicked the ball over to round out the lopsome tally.

Captain Effert, left halfback of Morning-side, while ten yards behind the line of scrimmage, kicked McKinley, Ames guard, on the head when he was down. The stands calmed down after loud clamor. The umpire took Effert from the gridiron and gave Ames the benefit of a fifty-yard penalty.

The play gave Ames a touchdown. Fullback Uhl, Dubel and Aldrich pounded the Morning-side line for twenty-five yards and Uhl took it over in a bullet-like plunge. Morning-side made downs only once.

WASHBURN GOES DOWN BEFORE JAYHAWK SUBS

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 6.—Ames, with many subs in the lineup, defeated Washburn college here today, 41 to 7. Starting the opening quarter with two touchdowns, Kansas added a pair of touchdowns in both the second and third periods. Washburn showed its spirit, however, for in the final period it staged a comeback that carried with it an offensive hitherto unovered. Washburn not only kept the Jayhawkers forfeited with regular players from scoring, but gained more ground than in the three other periods.

WASH AND JEFF LOSES TO PITTSBURGH ELEVEN

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 6.—The University of Pittsburgh foot ball team defeated Washington and Jefferson here today, 19 to 0, all of Pittsburgh's score coming in the third quarter. The short forward pass, used so successfully by Washington and Jefferson this season, was broken down repeatedly by Warner's men.

CRIMSON DOWNS TOLU NASSAU BAND

Harvard Wins Its Fourth Straight Battle from Princeton on Tiger Field.

FINAL SCORE IS TEN TO SIX

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 6.—Harvard won its fourth straight foot ball victory from Princeton today. The score was 10 to 6. Harvard scored a touchdown with goal, and a field goal. Princeton's score was made on two field goals.

The game dragged at times, especially when Harvard had the ball. The Crimson players appeared uncertain of their rights and frequently delayed the game while mulling together on the next play. However, they put up a good mechanical game and had the power to score. Princeton lacked the punch to put the ball over when it got into the Harvard territory.

The weather was fine and a great crowd saw the contest.

Harvard Scores in First Quarter.
First period: Harvard won the toss and chose the north goal, with the wind behind them. Parrett kicked off to Mahan on the twenty-yard line and two exchanges of punts and two penalties of five yards each against the Tigers for offside netted Harvard fifteen yards. With the help of the wind Mahan's kicking steadily forced Princeton back. A forward pass grounded and Mahan missed a field goal by inches from the forty-five-yard mark. Princeton punted from the twenty-yard mark and after another forward pass grounded Mahan tried for a goal kick. Hard playing took the ball to the Tigers' twenty-five yard mark. King then turned Princeton's left wing and scored a touchdown. Mahan kicked goal. Score: Harvard, 7; Princeton, 0.

Parrett kicked off again, Mahan coming back eight yards. Two line plays gained thirteen yards, then Mahan scrambled, but couldn't gain and another exchange of punts gave Tibbott a five yard run, against the mark. A fake kick gained six yards as the period ended. Score: Harvard, 7; Princeton, 0.

On the first play of the second period Shea fumbled and Soucy fell on the ball on Princeton's twenty-two yard line. Harvard was penalized five yards for offside. Mahan slid off tackle and dodged to the five-yard mark. King failed twice to gain, but Mahan carried four yards. Again King failed and Princeton took the ball on downs, less than a yard from the line.

Princeton's punt was made a free catch by Watson on the forty-yard mark and Mahan easily converted it into a field goal. Score: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 6.

Tigers Begin to Work.
The next kickoff went over the line and Mahan ran it out twenty yards. Boles and Mahan carried the ball to the thirty-five yard mark, whence the latter punted forty-five yards. At this point the Tigers' offense began to work. Driggs gained ten yards on a fake kick. Shea and Tibbott, in six plays, mostly center backs, took the ball to the Harvard twenty-seven yard mark. Glick made yards in the same hole. Then Harvard plugged the gap and stopped Tibbott short on three attempts. He then kicked a field goal from the twenty-eight yard line. Score: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 6.

Harvard elected to receive the kickoff. Mahan running it back to the twenty-yard line. Harvard held the ball through the rest of the period, advancing by short rushes and a twenty-yard gain by King on a fake play to Princeton's forty-five yard line. Mahan kicked short on an attempted field goal just as the half ended. Score: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 6.

Princeton Scores Again.
Third Period—With the wind at their backs and receiving the kickoff Princeton began a desperate fight in the third period. Tibbott ran the kickoff back fifteen yards to his twenty-five yard mark. Glick, Shea and Driggs punctured Harvard's left wing for a first down. Coolidge replaced Hark at Harvard's right end. A laterer pass, Shea to Tibbott, gained eighteen yards and Harvard was penalized five yards for offside. Glick

Haskell Defeated By Maroons; Stag Uses Few Regulars

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The University of Chicago with a team composed chiefly of substitutes, easily defeated the Haskell Indians here today, 5 to 0. Although the Indians never seriously threatened the Chicago goal, they showed occasional flashes of brilliancy in handling forward passes and made special gains by this method of attack.

Stagg used a sub team, but sent in some of his regulars late in the game, although at no time was the complete regular lineup used.

The lineup:

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 6.—Although Navy's eleven showed little improvement in attack or defense, they managed to defeat Bucknell today, 13 to 2. The Midshipmen were unable to tally in the first period, but the visitors scored a field goal a short time after the contest started.

With the West Point game only three weeks off, the Navy coaches hoped that today's contest would have resulted in at least a thirty-point victory. There has been, however, an absence of variety in attack and of aggressiveness in the plays that have been tried.
